

Furnaces & Atmospheres for Today's Technology

June 16-18, 2014

SECO/WARWICK

This two day seminar is held every year to present basic, practical information for individuals with new heat treat responsibilities. By reviewing the basics, attendees get a better understanding of how design impacts cost, equipment operation and maintenance. The full program features speakers from across the industry, including Dan Herring, The Heat Treat Doctor[®] sharing the newest trends in heat treat in North America. There are live demonstrations and a plant tour of our Meadville, PA manufacturing facility.
